AREA OF SPECIALIZATION

Robert Kincheloe is a Commercial Mortgage Broker focused on all facets of debt and equity for commercial real estate. Focused on finding and executing capital solutions for his clients, his area of expertise includes:

Debt on office buildings, shopping centers, industrial complexes, hotels, apartments, residential and commercial condominiums. Construction, Re-development, Mezzanine, Equity and Preferred equity

BUSINESS BACKGROUND

Prior to becoming a commercial real estate finance specialist in 1996, Kincheloe spent six years as a commercial real estate appraiser in both Dallas and San Francisco. Kincheloe appraised such landmarks as Sterling Plaza, The Mansion on Turtle Creek and the Occidental Petroleum Tower in Dallas, and One California Street and 555 California Street (at that time the Bank of America World Headquarters) in San Francisco.

Robert Kincheloe has specialized in financing commercial real estate since joining E.S. Merriman & Sons in 1996. Since that time he has placed over $2 billion of debt and equity on commercial real estate. Merriman sold to Cohen Financial in 1999, where Kincheloe remained as a Managing Director until joining Colliers International in 2010.

EDUCATION

Robert has earned a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration, Finance Emphasis, from Oregon State University. He is also a member of several Professional Organizations, Bay Area Mortgage Association (BAMA), International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) and National Association of Office and Industrial Properties (NAIOP) where he was a former Board Member.
